MEDICINAL.

Love is the corner-stone of a woman's life. She builds all her hopes upon and around those tender affections which she cherishes toward the one who is dear to her, and which she looks to receive from them in return.

This is woman's nature; it is the God-given instinct that makes her a fond and tender sweetheart; a comforting, helpful wife; an ever-loving, solicitous, care-taking mother.

When a woman feels that the responsibilities and duties of wifehood and motherhood have become irksome to her—a burden and trouble rather than a source of uplifting and inspiration—it shows that there is some deficiency in her physical make-up; some abnormal and unhealthy condition of the delicate and important special structure of womanhood.

Many thousands of women annually write to Dr. N. Y. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., the eminent specialist in women's diseases requesting professional advice—which he is always glad to send without charge—and telling him that the various benefits they have received from his wonderful "Favorite Prescription" in building up their special health and physical energy.

"I would like to express my gratitude to you for the benefit I have received from your wonderful 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. J. C. Anderson, of South Britain, New Haven, Conn. "During the first month of pregnancy I could not keep anything on my stomach. I was so sick that I had to go to bed and stay for weeks.

"I tried different doctors, but with little benefit. I read about many being helped by using your medicine so I thought I would give it a trial. I began to take 'Favorite Prescription' in November and I had a nice little baby girl in February following. My baby weighed over eight pounds. I was only in bed for about one hour and got along nicely with confidence. This makes my second child; with the first one I did not take 'Favorite Prescription' and I had no confidence in my ability as a mother could wish.

Send 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only for a free copy of Dr. Pierce's thousand-page Medical Adviser; or 31 stamps for a cloth-bound copy.

SHOOT THE WHIRLPOOL RAPIDS.

Yesterday afternoon Peter Nissen, of Chicago, made a trip through the Whirlpool Rapids to the Whirlpool in a small boat twenty feet long, six feet beam and four feet deep. When Nissen went to Niagara Falls yesterday he gave the name of "Bower," while his boat was named the "Fool Killer." His trip yesterday was wonderfully successful.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon his boat was towed from the Canadian to the New York shore, stopping midway between the falls and the rapids. Nissen was backward about going to Canada, fearing arrest, so he went down a ladder on the American side and took a rowboat to his craft.

He spent two hours in preparing the boat for the trip and at four o'clock was towed out into mid-stream by a boy in a boat. When the line was cast off Nissen drifted down with the current, but was caught by an eddy on the Canadian side and held three quarters of an hour until the boat again picked him up and took him in tow. When cast off the second time he took the main current, and was soon sweeping into the rapids. As he neared the bridges he put out his cork jacket and took hold of a life line in his boat. Now and then he waved to the crowds.

His boat took the first wave in nice style, it rode high in the water and he went quite a distance without even getting wet. When he reached the wave where Captain Webb lost his life the water struck him a terrible blow, and some thought he was swamped. Wave after wave broke over him and from this on his boat rode sideways and this brought the force of the water full against him.

By this time it was a continuous tossing, but at no time did the craft capsize. It was so heavily weighted that it held a good position and when at 5:30 he shot into the whirlpool, Nissen was still in the boat. After it had proceeded across the pool he was seen to stand up. He drifted around the pool about forty feet out from the Canadian shore. He went around the pool four times and his experience was thrilling. The first time around he saw a boy fishing on a rock and attempted to throw a line to him. The boy was so frightened that he did not get the line. Then Nissen drifted on.

More than once he was caught in deep whirls and his boat stood on end repeatedly. The water in the river was very high and this had brought a large amount of driftwood logs and timber into the pool. Right into the midst of his Nissen and his little craft were swept. Finally he got free of the debris and was carried well in toward the Canadian shore where three boys swam out and took hold of his line and towed him ashore at 6 o'clock, after an hour in the pool. He was cold from the exposure. After warming at a fire he was helped up the bank and driven to his hotel. He left his boat in the whirlpool last night.

TO KEEP YOUR YOUTH.—Some authority on the subject has stated that the only chemical difference between a girl of sixteen and a woman of sixty is a little charcoal and water. There is no remedy for the ravages of time, but the careful use of charcoal is certainly most beneficial both to the complexion and the temper. A charming woman once said that the secret of her social success was that she never allowed herself to stay in a bad temper. When he felt an attack coming on she immediately resorted to the charcoal bottle, and mixed a teaspoonful of the drug in a glass of water, and heroically swallowed the dose. The effect produced is most beneficial. The charcoal will correct any slight attack of indigestion. It is not well, however, to use too much charcoal, or too frequently, as an excess is apt to clog the intestines. If you feel out of sorts and in a bad humor try the remedy, and after a dose every night before retiring taken for three or four evenings consult the mirror and note the result.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try ONE bottle. Recommended many years ago by all druggists in the world. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claude M. Lennon, Wardell & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
